

Taipan Traders P.D.S Data for Egg Shell Sanitiser

CAUTION - Poison S5 • PGIII

WARNING: Must wear Australian approved full safety equipment when using this product at all times. Taipan Traders will not take responsibility for misuse of this product. Please ensure you read and understand P.D.S. & M.S.D.S. Data before using this product.

Egg Shell Sanitiser is a high quality sanitising compound used on exterior of eggs after they have been washed correctly. This product coats the exterior of the egg with an anti-bacterial residue, therefore protecting the eggs from bacteria and dangerous pathogens, stopping cross infections. Refer to MSDS data for more detailed information.

Method of Use: Dilute product 1 part product to 400 parts water, Spray or dip. DO NOT rinse off.

Storage: Product is to be stored in a cool, protected area. Sheltered from sun and rain. Do not stack drums on top of each other, due to possible chemical hazard. Do not store near other reactive chemicals. Refer MSDS data.

Safety Directions: Avoid Eye Contact.

First Aid: If swallowed contact a doctor or poisons information centre. Phone 13 11 26. If product makes contact with eyes, flush eyes with fresh water immediately for at least 15 minutes.

Emergency Phone: 0499 555 222

NOTICE: Taipan Traders imply the best of their field experience. Any use of Taipan Traders products, which may cause any direct, indirect damages such as sickness, burns, ill health or whether based in contract, tort or negligence or otherwise.